

Silsal Charades

Put the board games away, sometimes a good, old-fashioned game of charades is exactly what you need. Fun for the whole family, you can even host a virtual game with friends and family in a different house!

There's only one rule...no talking!

#SocialDistancing #We_Are_All_Responsible

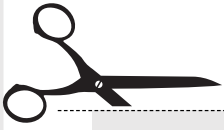

How to play

Players: 4+ / Age: 6+

THE RULES

- Print out the sheets and cut out each square.
- Fold the squares up and put them in a bowl.
 - Split into two teams.
- Each turn, a player from one team picks a square from the bowl and then acts out the word or phrase – but with no talking!
 - The members of their team have 60 seconds to guess the correct answer. Then, the other team goes.
 - The first team to reach 20 points wins.
